STENOGRAPHIC MINUTES: The Rules of Procedure for the Zoning Board of Appeals provides that anyone who desires verbatim minutes of the public hearing must furnish and pay for a stenographer to take such minutes. The minutes regularly kept by the Zoning Board of Appeals Secretary are summary in form and are intended to reflect the essence of the hearing. If an appeal of a decision of the Zoning Board of Appeals is taken, then the appealing party must furnish to the Zoning Board of Appeals a transcript of the pertinent proceedings without cost to the Board. Applicant's attention to said Rules of Procedure is invited.
